Hanasaku Language School

What's “はなさく言語学校”??

“Hanasaku language school” is a new Japanese language school which is located in the “Saitama City, “ near from Tokyo.

The philosophy of our school is “Everyone study “, not only the students, teachers also study to aim to grow up.

Our school buildings and classrooms are very new, and there are so many places where you can get comfortable and exchanges. And there are many commercial facilities and historical sights in the neighborhood.

School Philosophy

“The principle that everyone learns”

“Study — Long term study abroad —

Our main course is “Comprehensive Japanese Course” with the goal to go on to college. In this course, there are two kind of terms.

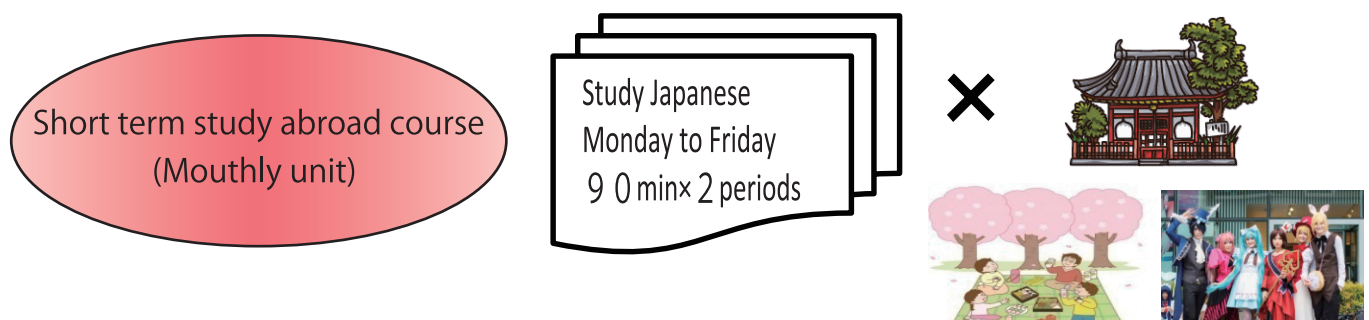

One is “2 years course” and another is “1 and half year course” , we aim to reach the N1 level of JLPT until graduation of the course.

In the first year, from enrollment to intermediate level, we set the goal to achieve thoroughly the basics of Japanese.

In the second year, from intermediate level to advance level, we set the goal to get the ability of practical Japanese.

“Study — Short term study abroad —

In addition to long-term study abroad, we have a short-term study abroad course.

This course is for those who want to learn Japanese, want to experience Japanese culture, etc. in a monthly course.

Also, applicant can participate in various activities (ex. cherry blossom viewing, temple tour, subculture experience etc) according to their wishes.

Career support

From first year, we do individually consultation of each students for after Japanese school graduation.
